SUMMONS.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE STATE of Nevada, in and for the county of Washoe.

The State of Nevada sends to Isaac Weston once and twice, You are hereby required to appear in an action commenced against you as defendant by Orlando Evans as plaintiff, in the District Court of the State of Nevada, in and for the county of Washoe, State of Nevada, and answer the complaint therein within ten days after the service on you of this summons—exclusive of the day of service—it served in said county, or within said district, and in all other cases forty days; or judgment by default will be taken against you according to the prayer of said complaint. The said action is brought to recover from you the sum of three hundred and fifty dollars in the gold coin of the United States, for money lent and received by defendant to the use and benefit of plaintiff and belonging to plaintiff, demanded by plaintiff of defendant, to pay which or any part thereof defendant has neglected or failed and refused to pay, and still does fail and refuse to pay, together with interest thereon from date of judgment until paid at ten per cent.

per annum and for costs of suit, all of which will more fully appear from the complaint, which is on file in the office of the Clerk of said Court, at Reno, in said county. And you are further notified that if you fail to appear and answer said complaint, the said action will be taken judgment for the said amount besides interest and costs of suit.

In testimony whereof, I, T. V. Julien, have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of said Court this 11th day of January, 1887.

GOSSIP ABOUT THE CABINET.

A Statement That Sherman Will Have His Choice Of Positions.

WASHINGTON, November 16.—A gentleman who arrived in Washington to-day from Indianapolis, and is known to be on intimate terms with General Harrison, said that he talked a little Cabinet before he left.

This gentleman states that General Harrison has a very strong leaning toward John Sherman; that he considers Sherman the ablest statesman in the United States, and that unless something occurs between now and inauguration day he will invite Sherman to make his choice of Cabinet portfolios.

General Harrison is also quoted as saying that he felt a great deal of sympathy for ex-Senator Warner Miller, and sincerely regretted that he had been defeated in New York. He does not believe Miller would have been beaten had he not made the high-licence issue so prominent in his canvass, but Harrison admired his moral courage all the more on account of this, and said he was going to do something handsome for Miller.

It is thought that Harrison will go East in about two weeks to consult with Blaine and Sherman.

LIFE INSURANCE.

A Very Important Decision by the Supreme Court.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15th.—The Supreme Court, through Chief Justice Fuller, has rendered an opinion of unusual interest to holders of insurance policies. The policies were, by their terms, payable either to the widow or children of the deceased. The administrator and creditors of Hume's estate sought to force the application of the proceeds of the policies to the payment of debts due to creditors, on the grounds that the premiums paid by Hume were raised by the fraudulent transfer of an insolvent estate.

The Supreme Court holds that the beneficiaries are entitled to the proceeds of the policies without any deduction whatever on account of the premiums paid, holding that a husband and father has a full right to insure his life in the interest of his wife and children, and that where such policies are affected in the name of the beneficiaries they are no part of the estate of the deceased insolvent, and, therefore, cannot be regarded as a fraudulent assignment of any part of his estate when so affected.

THE REPUBLICAN CABINET.

Report that Blaine Has Been Asked To Take the State Folio.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—The Press says: The news comes to this city in a semi-official way that General Harrison has determined to invite Blaine to a seat in his Cabinet, and that the Maine Statesman will accept. Of course the State Department will be offered him. The reason that has prompted the President elect to this action, aside from his high regard for Mr. Blaine's abilities and experience, is that all of his predecessors have invariably tendered the State portfolio to the recognized leader in the party. Senator Sherman and Blaine are the only men who can be placed in this rank, and General Harrison has chosen the latter. This can be stated positively on the authority of a gentleman who is closely associated with both General Harrison and Mr. Blaine. The latter is expected in this city within a week.

The New York Press states that a well-informed gentleman says, concerning Harrison's Cabinet, it is certain Pennsylvania will have a portfolio, and that General Lew Wallace will be Secretary of War. Pennsylvania will be represented by John Wannamaker. Blaine will have the State Department offered him, and the indications are he will accept. Ex-Senator Thomas O. Pratt will be New York's representative.

The many visits lately made by Senator Gorman to the White House have given currency to the rumor that Mr. Cleveland has been offered the Presidency of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad.

The Philadelphia Board of Trade has adopted a resolution memorializing Congress to suspend the purchase of bullion and the coinage of silver dollars.

Official returns from 45 out of 60 counties in New York and reliable estimates from the others show Harrison's majority to be about 13,000.

President Cleveland will attend, with his entire Cabinet, the centennial celebration of Georgetown University, to be held on February 23d.

FINAL RETURNS.

West Virginia Elects Democratic Governor, Legislature and Congressmen.

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—The Telegram has a Wheeling, W. Va., special this evening which says: The latest returns show the State to have been carried by the Democrats; also for Governor and Legislature. All the Democratic Congressmen have been elected. This will save Kenna as Senator and make the House of Representatives Democratic by a bare majority of one.

West Virginia Surely Republican.

WHEELING, W. Va., Nov. 15.—Dispatches received this evening by the Republican Committee lead Chairman Cowden to revise his figures and increase Goff's majority for Governor from 76 to 302. Their count in Fayette county gave him an increase of 100 votes, and authentic returns from McDowell make other differences. Owing to the recount these figures are still subject to revision. Later returns give McGinnis (Rep.), for Congress in the Third District, 35 majority. The Democratic State Committee still claims Fleming's election as Governor by 200 or 300, but furnish no figures.

The Next House Republican.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.—Senator Quay Chairman of the Republican National Committee, said to an associated Press reporter this afternoon, that the Republicans would certainly have control of the next House of Representatives by a majority of five, and their majority might be nine. There were several doubtful districts, the result in which would determine whether their majority would be higher or lower than the figures given. Quay declined for the present to give any particulars upon which his figures are based or what districts are still regarded as doubtful.

Emma Nevada Warbling to Royalty.

MADRID, Nov. 16.—Mme. Nevada sang in "Lackums" at the Opera House to-night. Among the audience was the Queen of Spain and the Queen of Portugal and their children, members of hispanic Spanish families and many other distinguished persons.

A woman's hair may grow to the length of six feet. Mme. Heam, of Paris, refused 5,000 francs for her "crucial covering," which was about that measurement.

A young couple at Ellsville, Ga., went riding and became so interested in talk, that it was some time before they noticed that their horse was quietly grazing at the roadside.

Under the laws of France a person who is reported dead by a legal official must remain dead, no matter how much he comes to life. If he wants to live he must take some other name.

General James Craig, who died recently at St. Joe, Mo., was one of the few men whom history records as having been defeated by a single vote. This happened when he ran for Congress in 1880.

DEBTS TO BE FORGIVEN.—Here are a few of the silly things which men have agreed to do in case of losing election wagers. Of course you haven't done so:

- Trundle a wheelbarrow through the streets.
- Run the gauntlet between two rows of men armed with clubs.
- Canvass for the sale of sewing machines and give the profits to the winner.
- Sit astraddle of the ridge-pole of a barn for twelve hours.
- Shave the top of the head.
- Wear a petticoat.
- Eat a boiled crow.
- Walk on the hands and knees.
- Sweep the street with a broom.
- Swim a river.
- Get drunk.
- Wear a straw hat on Christmas day.
- Eat a quart of raw oatmeal.
- Shovel snow off the neighbors' walks all winter.
- Walk barefooted a long distance.

The Californian fruits are fast taking their place alongside the imported goods. Californian raisins have become a standard article in the trade, and currants from the Pacific Coast are said to be fully equal to those from the Levant. French prunes are the best of this kind of fruit, and they are fast driving the Turkish prunes down from the head of the list.—Boston Traveler.

General Harrison carried his own premonition by the fluttering vote of 345 to 84, while his majority in his ward was so nearly unanimous as to be a Republican gain of 300. That shows what his neighbors with gray matter under their hats think of him.

CLEVELAND'S PRINCIPLES.

How He Looks at the Tariff Question Since the Election.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—A distinguished Democratic leader, who recently talked with the President regarding the election, quotes Mr. Cleveland as saying: "I am told that without the tariff issue in the last campaign we should have carried the country. That may be true. But the time had come when the issue between the two parties had to be made and the Democrats made it. I don't regret it. It is better to be defeated battling for an honest principle than to win by a cowardly subterfuge. Some of my friends say that we ought to have gone before the country on the clean administration we have given the people. I differ from them. We needed a clean-cut, well-defined issue. We were defeated, it is true, but the principles of tariff reform will surely win in the end."

President Harrison, If You Please.

That looks well. It is an agreeable reminiscence of a clean and high-minded gentleman who was carried into the Presidency on a wave of popular enthusiasm forty-eight years ago. In its immediate application it suggests a modest, broad, and well-informed and thoroughly equipped man, who has seen gallant service on the field, and has held high civil office with honor, and who, from that he was named for the Presidency has gained every day in the estimation of his countrymen. His public addresses have given ample evidence of his ability, his grasp of fundamental principles, his loyalty to Republican ideas, and his variety of resources. He emerges from a campaign of intense excitement without a stain upon his character. The most searching scrutiny of his political enemies has not disclosed any weak point by which he could be discredited. He is a standard-bearer whom the great Republican party of the nation has been glad and proud to follow, and whose elevation to the highest office in the gift of the people it holds with unlimited satisfaction. This satisfaction is the keener because the election of General Harrison puts an end to the four years' delirium of sham and false pretenses and all dangerous influences and forces which make up the record of the Cleveland Administration. It shows how groundless are the fears of the enemies of the Republican party, who have imagined that the party could be crushed by one defeat. It is a vindication of the strong, good sense and sound judgment of the American people, who have given a quick response to an appeal based upon the discussion of political principles, and have expressed themselves with no uncertain sound against a policy which menaced the stability of American industries.—Boston Journal.

An Ex-Smoker's Advice.

A young man who, not long ago, was an inveterate smoker, but who was recently induced to "swear off," came to me and talked in this strain: "I have been doing some figuring lately, and the result astonishes me. When I was smoking my hardest my average was eight cigars a day. Sometimes it would run over eight and sometimes under; but eight was about the all-round figure. I rarely bought my cigars by the box, and as I indulged in straight 10-cent goods, 80 cents a day was what my smoking cost me. This, with 40 cents added for cigars that I gave away and lost shaking dice, make a total of about $6 a week that I now save. It is just nine weeks and three days since I swore off, and by Saturday I shall have $60 in the bank, without an effort on my part save that required to control an unnecessary appetite. I must also regard as an asset the superabundance of animal spirits I enjoy as a direct result of my abstinence from a habit that everybody knows is weakening, when indulged in to excess. Smoke yourself, do you? Well, try my scheme. Swear off and put your cigar money in the bank. You might need it some day, even if you are a newspaper man." Chicago Journal.

In October 2,002 passengers arrived at San Francisco by sea. Of these 1,109 came from China and Japan, 287 from Panama, 290 from the Hawaiian Islands, 133 from Australia and 152 from British Columbia. The departures by sea for the same month were 2,048, including 1,133 to China and Japan, 239 to Panama, 426 to British Columbia, 163 to Australia and 74 to the Hawaiian Islands. The through overland arrivals for October were 11,671 and the departures 6,686. The number of arrivals was greater than that of any other month since April, 1886.

An invention was exhibited yesterday in Paris at a meeting of the American Institute of Electric Engineers, whereby anybody, though not a musician, may not only play the piano, but play it forward, backward or sideways.

First-class overland travel is diminishing and second-class is increasing. The various lines have competed in making second-class cars more comfortable. This move is in the right direction. It encourages the coming of a class of people who have the instinct of good living, but are disposed to economize. They have the making of good settlers in them.

WELL-BORER.—The Susanville Advocate says:

Nearly enough has been subscribed toward the $2,000 necessary to purchase an artesian well-borer to be operated in this valley. The principal stockholders are E. R. Dodge, W. P. Hall, and Isaac Adams. As before stated the machinery will cost about $2,000, all but $200 of which has been subscribed. We have but very little doubt that from comparison with other districts, where flowing water has been struck, that artesian water can be found here.

MASQUERADE BALL.—Amity Lodge, No. 8, K. of P., will give a grand masquerade ball New Years night, Jan. 1, 1894. A special meeting of the Lodge will be held at their hall Friday evening, November 23, 1893, at 7:30 P. M. sharp to make final arrangements.

A "TOOTOMETER."

Nevel Invention Which Registers the Whistle of a Locomotive.

Frank B. Taylor, of Bridgeport, Conn., the inventor of the "sophophone," for transmitting messages or holding conversations with engineers while under full speed of their locomotives, has just patented a device which he calls a "tootometer." In reality it is a species of phonograph. Mr. Taylor was led to believe that some mechanical device could be employed to settle the oft-disputed question in regard to whistling at grade crossings. There are a large number of grade crossings in this State, upon which annually many lives are lost. The relatives of those killed almost invariably claim that the locomotive whistle was not sounded in time to warn the victims. The railroad companies, to protect themselves against damages, dispute the point so often taken. Mr. Taylor now comes to the front with a tall-tale whistling register, which takes the sound from the whistle every time it is blown and records it.

In order to explain its workings the run of any engine on the New York and New Haven road may be used for illustration. Say Engine 120 draws the 7 o'clock morning train from New Haven to New York. The engine is backed up in front of the depot and attached to the train. The engineer, George Corbett, steps into the dispatcher's office to get the time or set his watch exactly with the standard time. The dispatcher hands the engineer a "tootometer," which is already set for Engineer Corbett's run. It is numbered to correspond with the engine's number, and is dated and officially locked, so that it is impossible for any one to alter its register of the whistle soundings. The "tootometer" is placed in a pocket bracket on the front of the cab, just beneath the whistle. Inside the "tootometer" is a long roll of tin-foil, upon which are stamped the cross lines representing every grade crossing on the road. The roll is unwound from one axle to the other by means of a small clock movement, so that each line representing a crossing will be brought to the "sounding opening" precisely at the same moment that the locomotive speeds over the grade crossing. At the proper distance before reaching the grade crossing the engineer blows the standard signal, two long and two short blasts, — — — — —, or T—o—o—t, — — — — —, too, too.

These sounds are registered by the "tootometer." Should the engineer fail to sound his whistle the "tootometer" would show an empty blank.

And so the run is made to New York, the "tootometer" rolling off its strip of tin-foil in time and unison with the movement of the engine. All trains are run on exact time on this road, so there is very little chance of the "tootometer" disagreeing with the time grade crossings are reached. If extra whistling is done to drive cows off the track or blown for other purposes than grade crossings the sounds are all registered and an exact record taken of the whistle's blasts and the exact location of the engine on the rails at the time of the blast is denoted from one end of the road to the other. At the completion of the trip the "tootometer" is handed by the engineer to the proper official, who removes the roll of sounds and prepares and adjusts the "tootometer" for the return trip. The strips of tin-foil are carefully indexed and preserved for future reference, and the engineer credited or charged with omissions of whistles.

In the event of a person being killed on a grade crossing the "tootometer" will truthfully indicate the whistle blasts and denote the distance at which they were blown before the crossing was reached. The tin-foil strips can be produced at an inquest or in a court of justice in evidence, and dissipate the necessity of an immense amount of swearing as to the fact of the whistle having sounded or not. By running the strips through a phonograph the exact volume of sound and the key of the whistle can be reproduced. This can be reproduced at any future and convenient time. Mr. Taylor, the inventor, has assurances that his invention will go into very general use.—St. Paul Pioneer Press.

DEATH OF GEO. W. BLOOR.—The

JOURNAL very much regrets to announce the death of Geo. W. Bloor, the veteran printer, at his late residence on Fourth street, yesterday morning at 10 o'clock, after long suffering from the dreaded Bright's kidney disease. Deceased was one of the oldest printers in the United States, having been nearly fifty years at the business. He came to this coast in 1856, and located in Marysville, where he published the Appeal, which was the first newspaper in that section of the State. Altogether he was the founder of seven different papers, besides working in nearly every town of any note in the United States either as reporter or printer. He was married in Marysville, the union resulting in the birth of two sons, one of whom (George) died. The other, J. B. Bloor, is well known all over the coast as a newspaper man of ability, and until recently has been connected with the Gazette. Deceased was well liked and respected by all who had the pleasure of his acquaintance during his life time. The remains will be taken to Sacramento this evening for burial, where the funeral will be conducted under the auspices of the Sacramento Typographical Union Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Dorman B. Eaton, in making an address to New York students, said the new Administration would probably not hamper civil service reform in any way. In Harrison the country had a man who was thoroughly in favor of reform.

HOMICIDE AT SILVER PEAK.

The Postmaster Shot for Non-Delivery of a Letter.

The Enterprise of yesterday contains the following:
Last evening somewhat vague rumors arrived in Virginia relative to the killing of the Postmaster at Silver Peak, Esmeralda county. Nothing very definite could be learned, but a general average of facts as far as known, makes the following account probably pretty near the truth. Frank McTigue, a young man raised in Silver City, who has been at work near Silver Peak for some time, was generally known there by the name of Pollard. He was not traveling under an assumed name, but readily answered that designation because it was the name of his stepfather. On Wednesday he went to the Postoffice and asked for a letter which was refused him. The supposition is that he wanted one addressed to McTigue, and that the Postmaster only knowing him as Pollard would not deliver it. This is however, only supposition on the part of those who brought the news. After some angry words over the matter, McTigue left the store where the mail is kept, but soon returned and made an attempt to go behind the boxes and help himself. He was met by the Postmaster, who, it is presumed, offered some resistance, and in the quarrel was shot and killed. Immediately after the killing McTigue surrendered himself, and there being no place where he could be confined, was allowed to go to his room.

The story is that he had undressed and gone to bed, when he is supposed to have overheard men in the next room discussing the propriety of hanging him. In the morning he was missing, as was quite natural under the circumstances, when it is considered that he would have the usual dislike for being regarded as an eaves-dropper, strengthened by solicitude for personal safety. Six Indians were sent in pursuit.

IMPORTANT TO OVERLAND PASSENGERS.

—The lines popularly known as the Vanderbilt System of Railroads are the Michigan Central Railroad, the popular "Niagara Falls Route," by which passengers are afforded an unequalled opportunity of seeing the great cataraet from Falls View Station, where all trains stop for ten minutes; the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Railway, the route of the famous steam-heated vestibule train, known as the "Chicago and New York Limited," with its buffet, smoking and library cars, with barber shop and bath room attached, its elegant dining cars and unequalled cuisine and luxurious sleeping cars, by which passengers are landed in New York City in twenty-five hours from Chicago; the famous "Bee Line," the popular route from St. Louis and Cincinnati; and the New York Central and Hudson River Railroad, the "Great Four Track Route." These lines are the great natural highways from Chicago and St. Louis to Cleveland, Detroit, Toledo, Buffalo and New York, and in connection with the Boston and Albany Railroad to Boston and New England points and are world-famous for their magnificent roadway, slight curvature, easy grades and luxurious accommodations. All passengers are landed at the Grand Central Station, situated in the heart of New York City, and are thus saved the delay and annoyance of ferry transfer incidental to other routes. For detailed information regarding rates, routes, sleeping-car accommodations, etc., call on or address H. W. HIGGINS, Agent Southern Pacific Co., Reno, Nev.

or Wm. S. BALDWIN, Pacific Coast Agent, No. 8 New Montgomery St., San Francisco.

IMPORTANT NOTICE.—I take the liberty to announce to the public and to my customers that we have moved to the large and spacious store of the Chamber's building, next door to M. A WARNING.

The modes of death's approach are various, and statistics show conclusively that more persons die from diseases of the Throat and Lungs than any other. It is probable that everyone, without exception, receives vast numbers of Tubercle Germs into the system and where these germs fall upon suitable soil they start into life and develop, at first slowly and is shown by a slight tickling sensation in the throat and if allowed to continue their ravages they extend to the lungs producing Consumption and to the head, causing Catarrh. Now all this is dangerous and if allowed to proceed will in time cause death. At the outset you must act with promptness; allowing a cold to go without attention is dangerous and may cost you your life. As soon as you feel that something is wrong with your Throat, Lungs or Nostrils, obtain a bottle of Boecher's German Syrup. It will give you immediate relief.

Advice to Mothers.

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so, send at once and get a bottle of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentery and diarrhoea, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25 cents a bottle. Feb. 21-law f-1v

250 Beautiful Lots For Sale!

A RARE CHANCE FOR INVESTMENT AND A HOME

THE MOST LOVELY PORTION OF RENO.

Facing the Truckee—The Aristocratic Riverside Avenue Driveway—Splendid Sewerage—Healthy Location and Safe From Fire.

The proprietor is now ready to receive proposals for lots in Powning's Addition. The map gives a good idea of the Tract, which is situated between the Central Pacific Railroad and the Truckee River, and commences on the west at a point three blocks distant from Virginia Street, making it the most central and convenient of any portion of the rapidly growing town of Reno. Unlike any other part of the town this Addition faces the beautiful Truckee River and Riverside Avenue is certain to become the fashionable driveway of the country. The streets are 80 feet wide, while Riverside and Keystone Avenues are intended to be 100 feet in width. All alleys are 20 feet wide. The soil is a rich gravelly loam, and susceptible of the highest state of cultivation. Being situated as it is it is more safe from fire than any other section. The regular lots are 50x140 feet. The sewerage is perfect.

Before Buying Elsewhere Parties will do Well to Look at These Lots.

RENO

Reno's geographical position is excellent. It is on the line of the Central Pacific Railroad, only 154 miles from Sacramento, and 244 miles from San Francisco. It is the terminus of the Virginia and Truckee Railroad running south, and of the Nevada and California Railroad running north. It has two Flouring Mills, Planing Mills, three Nurseries, a Soap Factory, Reduction Works, and other industries. A great Woolen Mill and a Sash, Door, Blind and Box Factory, are about to be established.

Reno has the Bank of Nevada with $300,000 capital, and the First National Bank with $200,000 capital. It has two fine papers in the DAILY and WEEKLY NEVADA STATE JOURNAL and the Daily and Weekly Gazette.

Reno is the natural home of the Alfalfa, and therefore the great cattle headquarters of the State. Here are fed the prime beef for the California market. Reno potatoes are the best in the world, and she also excels in Strawberries and the small fruits. Reno Wheat took the first prize at the great New Orleans Exposition.

The State Fair is always held at Reno.

Reno is the County Seat of Washoe County, the wealthiest county in Nevada.

RENO

Has no equal in Nevada or California for salubrity of climate, wealth of soil, diversity of products and stability. Situated in the very heart of the celebrated Truckee Meadows the future of Reno is assured. Reno is the City of Homes. There is not a house to rent in Reno. New buildings are occupied as fast as erected. Reno has advantages which no other town can equal. The climate is mild and genial in winter, and even and healthful in summer. There are no excessively heated or severely cold terms, and while the days may be warm in summer the nights are deliciously cool; in winter sleigh-riding is the exception and not the rule.

Facilities for irrigating surpass any in the State, and there is no failure of crop. Reno has Churches of all denominations, Bishop Whiteaker's School for Girls, Mt. St. Mary's Academy, the State University, and splendid Public Schools.

The Reno Water Co. furnishes ample pure, cold water for all purposes. The Reno Electric Light Co.'s electric light system, already well established, is being augmented. The Reno Gas Co. supplies gas for all purposes. The streets of Reno are lighted by electricity.

NEW ORLEANS, La.

I suffered with catarrh for many years and got so deaf that I went about my Museums, Circus and Theatre giving directions and doing business with a big ear-trumpet at the side of my head. It was very annoying to me and amusing to those who saw me. By the advice of physicians I sought the climate of the Sunny South. In six months I could see no change and was discouraged. At this time I began using Chalmer's English Catarrh Cure. In three months I felt a new man, in six months my hearing returned. I refused to give a testimonial at once for the English Catarrh Cure, as I feared it was not permanent. But a year and more has now passed, and I can now heartily indorse Chalmer's English Catarrh Cure for the cure of catarrh and deafness.

THE MARCH OF PROGRESS! OUR LATEST IMPROVEMENTS!

"Competition is the life of Trade," and if you have not seen our latest improved goods you cannot understand the reason. We are now offering for sale the JAMES MEANS' $3 SHOE, and the JAMES MEANS' $4 SHOE. These shoes are made of the finest materials, and are of a style and quality that will satisfy the most fastidious. They are also of a style and quality that will satisfy the most fastidious. They are also of a style and quality that will satisfy the most fastidious.

Such has been the recent progress in our branch of industry that we are now able to affirm that the James Means' $3 Shoe is in every respect equal to the $4 shoe, which only a few years ago we sold at that price or ten dollars. If you will try on a pair you will be convinced that we do not exaggerate. Our shoes are the original $3 and $4 shoes, and those who have tried them in their business are unable to compete with us in quality of factory products. In our line we are the only shoe manufacturers in the United States. One of our traveling salesmen who is now visiting the shoe retailers of the Pacific Coast and Rocky Mountain Region writes from there as follows: "I am more than satisfied with the results of my trip. I have thus far succeeded in placing our full line in the hands of a No. 1 dealer in every point I have visited." He goes on to say, "This is a splendid region for us to sell shoes in, because most of the retailers are changing their customers at retail about double the price, which the James Means shoes cost. The consequence is that the people who wear shoes are paying six or seven dollars a pair for shoes which are not worth as much as our JAMES MEANS' $3 and $4 shoes. Our shoes with their very low retail prices stamped on the sole of every pair are breaking down the high prices which have hitherto ruled in the retail shoe trade, and when a retailer puts a full line of goods in his stock, they at once begin to go off like hot cakes. So great is the demand for them."

Now, kind reader, just stop and consider what the above signifies so far as you are concerned. I assure you that if you keep on buying shoes as you have been, you are paying a fixed retail price for shoes on the whole, you cannot tell what you are getting, and your pocket is probably getting pretty well done. What your shoes have cost is fine. Now, it is your effort to do it. You are in a position to get a pair of shoes for our name and the fixed retail price upon the sole of our shoes, and before they leave our factory so that you cannot be made to pay more for your shoes than a shoe worth. Shoes from our celebrated factory are sold by wide-awake retailers in all parts of the country. We will place them easily within your reach in any State or Territory if you will invest one dollar and write to us.
